Overview

This current climate has seen a huge shift in the way weddings are approached, and what couples want their wedding to look like. And as much as we love a big wedding here, there's something incredibly special about working on the super intimate weddings. If this is the kind of wedding you're looking for, we're here to make life easy for you!

From the start of May until the end of September, we are offering a range of elopement packages.

All you have to do is choose your elopement package, and your preferred floral scheme (we have three different ones available), and we'll do all the hard work for you. We work with seasonally available blooms, and pick the perfect colour combo to create dreamy flowers for your wedding. We'll even decide on the ceremony piece that best suits your ceremony location. Leaving the planning solely without the back and forth communication of a usual wedding means that we can lower the overall package costs.

If you're looking for a no stress, no fuss elopement, this is the perfect option for you!
